

Letter of Apology and Notice of Retraction

Dear Business Economic, Communication, and Social Sciences Journal (BECOSS),

My co-authors and I submitted a journal article titled "Implikasi Current Account Savings Account (CASA), Biaya Operasional dan Pendapatan Operasional (BOPO) dan Non-Interest Income Terhadap Profitabilitas Bank Umum " which has been published in BECOSS Vol. 6 No. 3 (September 2024).

In this regard, I respectfully write this to the Editor-in-Chief of BECOSS journal. I am aware that the published article causes an ethical violation of publication ethics due to duplicate publication in another journal. The article was previously published in the COSTING journal Vol. 7 No. 6 (2024)<sup>1</sup> with the issuance of an LOA in October 2024. Where my assumption is that the submission of the journal to the BECOSS Journal does not meet the requirements for publication because there is a revision and I did not make the latest revision, but it turns out that on December 6, 2024 the LOA from the BECOSS journal was published, so there was a duplicate publication.

Therefore, I respectfully ask to retract the article "Implikasi Current Account Savings Account (CASA), Biaya Operasional dan Pendapatan Operasional (BOPO) dan Non-Interest Income Terhadap Profitabilitas Bank Umum " written by Fajar Andrianto Wiliam Santoso, Fahrul Riza and Haikal Andrean. I apologize to the Editor-in-Chief of BECOSS, managing editors, and BECOSS journal publishing team.

Thank you for your attention.
